ST. PAUL LUTHERAN MISSION STATEMENT:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit to make Christ known;

As we love one another, serve our neighbor, and grow in our Faith through studying God's Word and Worshiping God.

When you receive this newsletter, Christmas will be just days away, and soon after will come New Year's Eve and the New Year. On January 6, the 12 days of Christmas celebration will end. On that day we celebrate the coming of the wise men to honor the Christ-child. This celebration is called "Epiphany" – "epiphany" being the Greek word for "manifest". What was made manifest on this day so many centuries ago was that Christ was revealed to the Gentiles (all those apart from the children of Israel). The wise men were from far away and were not a part of the Hebrew people, yet they came to worship Him. The season which follows the Day of Epiphany is also called Epiphany, and in worship services we will be reading the stories of how Jesus was being revealed to all people.

"Manifest" means to make evident or to make certain by showing or displaying a truth. This manifestation continues yet today. It continues through the preaching and teaching of God's Word; it continues through worship, singing and prayer; it is carried out through evangelism, stewardship, youth activities, social ministry, even church property maintenance. The baby Jesus, whom the wise men worshiped, is still revealed and made evident to people today. Anytime we act according to our Christian teaching in our daily lives, when we strive to "do what is right" by faith, or we try to follow Christ's example, we are making the Lord manifest to others. Through our involvement in the church, on committees, as leaders, teachers, musicians, ushers, altar guild, and as volunteers of all stripes, we are helping to manifest Christ to the world.

As the New Year approaches, it would be good if each of us would examine ourselves and see just how we are or are not manifesting Christ in our lives. What are our actions and lifestyle revealing to others -- a love for Christ and His ways, or self-centeredness, self-gratification, and pettiness? Are we really putting forth an effort to help our congregation manifest Christ in and through all of its varied ministry? Take in the Epiphany and take some time to rededicate ourselves and our lives to Christ and to making Christ manifest in our neighborhood and world.

Your Pastor,
Tim W Muehlbrad

DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Huge Thank Yous...

Some well deserved thanks goes to Erin Koopman as the Director, her assistants Ashleigh Peyton and Miranda Rohan, all the teachers and other adults who helped, and the children and youth who helped tell the story for the wonderful Christmas program, "Letters to Baby Jesus," on Dec. 14th! You helped us all focus on the true meaning of Christmas through your letters to Jesus, all who took part in the nativity story, and even Santa himself! Thanks, also, to Laurey Garcia and the FFF for providing the gift bags for the children at the end of the program!

Rally Day AGAIN!

Sunday, January 4th we will gather together to celebrate our coming back after the Christmas break and the start of our Spring session as we continue to learn from God's word! We will all meet together for an opening of songs and celebrating being together. Then we will have games for the children!

It will be a great kick-off to our new Spring session of classes! We hope you will be there!

NOTE: We will NOT be holding classes on Jan. 25th so that all may attend the Annual Congregational Meeting

The Luther Banner...

The "Banner Class" went to the 1st and 2nd Graders with an impressive attendance of 51% for the month of November. This banner is determined by the total number enrolled in the classes, the number of Sundays in the month, and then the number that attended on all those Sundays. They are entered into an Excel sheet that figures the percentage that attended. So, every Sunday you are in your class helps your chances of getting the banner!

So, plan on being there as many weeks as possible and have the banner hanging on your door!

What was most impressive is that this month all three classes were within 3 points of each other with all of them at or above 50% attendance! Let's keep it up and maybe have better numbers in January!

 1. The FFF youth had a great time playing BINGO with the residents at Yorktown Manor on Saturday, November 15th. The residents were so happy to visit and interact with them. The hayride/weenie roast was a great success! We had approximately fifty people in attendance, the adults enjoyed fellowship, and the kids had a blast being kids!
 2. The JH Sunday school class taught the nursery on Sunday, 11/23. We made cookies with M&Ms in them as an object lesson showing that all the good things in life: joy, peace, patience, kindness, gentleness (the M&Ms) are held together by the cookie dough (Love)!

The Annual Congregational Meeting will be held Sunday, January 25, 2026 - immediately following the Worship Service.

Annual Meeting

One item on the agenda of our Annual Congregational Meeting to be held on January 25, 2026, will be ratifying changes to the NALC Constitution. At the recent NALC Mission Convocation, August 6-8, 2025, in Pittsburgh, PA, the 457 delegates of the convocation voted to approve three amendments to the NALC Constitution. As a result of those actions, each NALC congregation is asked to vote “yes” or “no” on these amendments at a properly held congregation meeting.

Amendment One: The movement of some language in the Constitution to the Bylaws and clean up Scrivener’s Errors (constitution numbering system).

Amendment Two: Addition of the Article on the North American Lutheran Seminary.

Amendment Three: Addition to current Article 16 entitled, “Indemnification” to be renamed, “Legal and Financial Matters.”

The threshold required for ratification consists of three benchmarks:

- 1) 50% of NALC congregations that were members at the time of the Mission Convocation must vote on the amendments.
- 2) A simple majority at your congregational meeting is sufficient for your congregation to ratify each amendment.
- 3) In order for the ratification to pass, two-thirds of the congregations which voted need to have voted in the affirmative.

The ballot at our congregational meeting will be similar to this:

MODEL BALLOT FOR CONGREGATIONAL MEETINGS

One Combined Vote

How should St. Paul Lutheran Church, Yorktown, TX vote on whether to ratify the amendments to Articles of the NALC Constitution, which were approved by the NALC's 2025 Mission Convocation?

The Three Amendments shall be voted on as one:

Amendment One: Cleaning up Scrivener's errors and moving some language into bylaws. The bylaws are indicated by a three number system such as 01.01.01.

Amendment Two: "North American Lutheran Seminary"

Amendment Three: Article 16 "Legal and Financial Matters"

Please circle your choice: YES NO

If you have questions or would like a copy of all the changes involved, please contact the St. Paul Lutheran Church office or talk to Pastor.
